Thank You & Welcome

Thank you for getting involved in Bravehearts Day and raising funds to prevent child sexual abuse! Held annually during National Child Protection Week, Bravehearts Day (formerly White Balloon Day) is on Friday the 9th of September, 2022.

For over 25 years, Bravehearts has led the largest and longest-running awareness and fundraising campaign dedicated to breaking the silence around child sexual abuse and preventing this insidious crime.

The funds you raise for Bravehearts Day will go towards supporting:

- Bravehearts education programs (such as Bravehearts Ditto's Keep Safe Adventure).
- Counselling and support services for children and families affected by child sexual abuse.
- Vital research around the prevention and treatment of child sexual abuse and child protection reforms.

About Bravehearts

Bravehearts is an Australian child protection organisation dedicated to the prevention and treatment of child sexual abuse.

Our Mission: To provide a coordinated and holistic approach to the prevention and treatment of child sexual abuse.

Our Vision: A world where people, communities and systems all work together to protect children from sexual abuse.

How is Bravehearts Preventing and Treating Child Sexual Abuse?

Bravehearts pursues our Mission and Vision through:

- Personal Safety Education: We work to prevent child sexual abuse by educating children and young people about personal safety, including body ownership, cyber-safety and consent. Our flagship program is Ditto's Keep Safe Adventure (for children aged 3 to 8).
- Counselling & Support: We work to treat child sexual abuse through the provision of affordable counselling and support for children (and their non-offending family members) affected by this crime, a national Information and Support Line (1800 272 831), child and family advocacy, case management for adult survivors seeking Redress, and therapeutic intervention for children and young people with harmful sexual behaviours.
- Child Protection Training & Advisory: We work to prevent child sexual abuse by training individuals and advising organisations on how to better respond to and prevent child safety issues.
- Research & Reform: We work to prevent and treat child sexual abuse by ensuring our education programs, counselling services and training is backed by current, evidence-based research, and by advocating for legislative reform that works in the best interest of children, young people and survivors of child sexual abuse.

Why We Need Your Help!

TRIGGER WARNING: The following content contains information about child sexual abuse and may be triggering for survivors of this crime. If you or someone else is in need of information or support, please contact Bravehearts on freecall 1800 272 831 (Mon-Fri, 8:30am-4:30pm AEST).

Child sexual abuse is a global problem that knows no physical, financial, socioeconomic, geographic, cultural or gender boundaries.

All forms of child sexual abuse are a profound violation of the human rights of the child and a crime under law. The impacts of this crime are far-reaching for children, families and communities.

Children who have been sexually abused can suffer a range of psychological and behavioural problems, ranging from mild to severe, both in the short and long term. Effects of the abuse can vary, however children who are believed when they first disclose and are given the right type of therapeutic support, are less likely to endure long term negative impacts.

What is Child Sexual Abuse?

Child sexual abuse and exploitation is any act of inappropriately exposing or subjecting a child (under the age of 18) to sexual activity, contact or behaviour by an adult for the purposes of gratification (sexual or otherwise).

How Common is Child Sexual Abuse?

More common than you may think – Approximately 1 in 5 Australian children will experience child sexual abuse<sup>1</sup>. It's a crime that affects all races, economic classes, cultural groups and genders. Children of all ages are abused, even toddlers and babies<sup>2</sup>.

What are the Statistics?

- In at least 90% of child sexual abuse cases, the offender is known to the family<sup>3</sup>.
- 98% of all child sexual abuse reports made by children are found to be true<sup>4</sup>.
- A child aged 0-9 years is approximately 40 times more likely to be the victim of sexual abuse than of kidnapping or abduction<sup>5</sup>.
- Approximately 1 in 3 cases of child sexual abuse are instigated by other young people<sup>6</sup>.
- Children with a learning disability are 2.5 times more likely to be the subject of a sexual abuse allegation than children without a learning disability<sup>7</sup>.

5 Steps to Fundraising Success

Step 1: Set a Goal and Make a Plan

Set your fundraising goal so your supporters know what you're aiming for. Then take some time to plan out the fundraising activity or event that will get you to your fundraising goal. Bravehearts has developed a list of fundraising ideas – you can download this from braveheartsdays.com.au.

Step 2: Personalise your Fundraising Page

When you register for Bravehearts Day, you will be automatically issued your own online fundraising page. It's important to personalise this page, adding a little about yourself (or your organisation), photos or videos and most importantly, WHY you have chosen to fundraise for Bravehearts Day! Remember, your potential donors are interested in you and why the cause matters to you – this is known as your 'case for support' (more on this later).

Step 3: Donate to your Own Page

Lead by example and be the first one to make a donation to your fundraising page (it doesn't have to be a large amount). Other people are more likely to donate when they see that someone has already contributed. Making your own donation also demonstrates to your supporters you're serious about helping the cause.

Step 4: Promote your Fundraising Efforts!

Spread the word among your family, friends, workmates and community using all available channels including social media, email, face-to-face and business connections. Be sure to use the promotional and social media resources available on braveheartsdays.com.au, and follow the key messaging and social media promotion guidance laid out further on in this booklet.

Step 5: Thank your Supporters

It's important to regularly thank your donors for supporting your fundraising journey. Gratitude goes a long way and donors who feel appreciated are more likely to donate again to your next fundraising appeal!

Building Your Case for Support

A Case for Support is a statement that explains why you are raising funds for Bravehearts and why people should support you and the cause. You can use your Case for Support on your online fundraising page, in emails, social media posts and at fundraising events.

Build a strong Case for Support by answering these four questions:

1. What will you be doing to raise funds for Bravehearts Day (i.e., will you be hosting an event, doing a specific fundraising activity etc.)?
2. Why are you fundraising for Bravehearts Day?
3. Who is Bravehearts and what does the organisation do?
4. How will the money raised make a difference?

Bravehearts Day FAQs

Find our full set of FAQs at braveheartsdays.com.au/about/faqs.

About Bravehearts Day

Bravehearts Day is dedicated to raising funds and awareness for the prevention of child sexual abuse, and supporting survivors of this crime. Held annually during National Child Protection Week, the day was previously named Bravehearts White Balloon Day and has been running for over 25 years.

What happened to White Balloon Day?

The inaugural White Balloon Day was held over 25 years ago however, since then attitudes towards the use of balloons have evolved. It is now widely accepted that balloons cause harm to the natural environment and subsequently, Bravehearts cannot in good faith continue to promote their use as part of our cause.

Bravehearts acknowledge that White Balloon Day holds significant meaning for survivors of child sexual abuse and Bravehearts in no way wishes to detract from this. Though the day has adopted a new name, the essence of the campaign remains.

What does Bravehearts do with the funds raised?

Funds raised for Bravehearts Day help Bravehearts to prevent child sexual abuse by supporting personal safety education programs, such as Ditto's Keep Safe Adventure Show. Funds also help support children and families affected by child sexual abuse via specialist counselling services, and help fund essential research and reform.

Use plain English, a friendly tone, and make sure you SPELL CHECK your posts before publishing!

1. Include your 'Case for Support' in your posts.
2. Always include the link to your fundraising page in your posts and tell people exactly what it is - i.e., 'here is the link to my fundraising page where you can donate securely online now'.
3. Add images to your posts. You can utilise the social media assets and campaign images available to download from braveheartsday.com.au, but don't be shy about posting photos or videos of yourself and/or your friends and workmates that are involved in your fundraiser too (with permission of course)! The more personal and heartfelt you can make your fundraising, the more likely it is people will want to support you!
4. Be clear about what you want. Always add a 'Call to Action' on your posts (for example, 'donate now' or 'Make a $10 donation today'), making it crystal-clear what you are asking your supporters to do.

Important Advice

Being involved in Bravehearts Day means that you may be asked questions about Bravehearts and the work that we do. This may sometimes lead to people opening up to you and having conversations about child sexual abuse and/or childhood trauma that you may find triggering or uncomfortable.

Child sexual abuse is a crime that is largely 'swept under the rug' in our society. The media and the public generally find talking about this crime uncomfortable, particularly when it comes to familial child sexual abuse (abuse that happens within families). This means that your efforts in raising funds and awareness are all the more important! The more people are aware of the signs of child grooming and sexual abuse and the devastating effects of this crime, the better it can be prevented.

It is important to be aware though, that in talking about the crime of child sexual abuse, and by virtue of raising funds for Bravehearts, a member of the public or perhaps a friend, family member or even acquaintance, may want to share their own story of abuse with you. This is called a 'disclosure'.

When an adult makes a disclosure about being abused as a child, this is called 'historical child abuse'. Adults who have survived any kind of abuse as a child are referred to by Bravehearts as 'survivors'.

If a survivor does disclose to you, in order to look after yourself, and the person who is making the disclosure, here is some advice to follow:

How to Respond to a Disclosure of Historical Abuse from an Adult Survivor

1. Be kind and respectful: First and foremost, be gentle with the person who has entrusted you with their disclosure. Keep in mind that this may be the first time they have ever told someone about their experience and they trust you enough to see them at their most vulnerable.

2. Acknowledge, then gently deflect and refer: Initially respond to the person by saying: "Thank you for trusting me enough to share this with me." If it sounds like the person is going into a lengthy story, try, if you can, to respectfully stop the person by reminding them that you are not a counsellor and you are not trained to hear their disclosure. Refer the person to the Bravehearts website bravehearts.org.au and/or Bravehearts Information and Support Line 1800 272 831 (open 8:30am - 4:30pm AEST, Monday to Friday), which is operated by trained professionals who can provide them with professional support.

3. Remember, you are not a counsellor: Even if you ARE a trained counsellor, your role as a fundraiser for Bravehearts does not oblige you to counsel a person making a disclosure (unless you are in session and that person is your client of course!). For those of us who are not counsellors or therapeutic professionals, hearing stories of historical child sexual abuse can be upsetting and can sometimes lead to 'vicarious trauma'. It is important that you take care of your own mental health and do what's best for the person who has disclosed to you, and that is to refer them to someone who can provide professional support and advice.

4. Reach out if you need support: If you are finding it difficult to process a disclosure, or find yourself triggered in any way by the discussion of child sexual abuse, please reach out to us. Bravehearts Information and Support Line 1800 272 831 (open 8:30am - 4:30pm AEST, Monday to Friday) is available to you if you need to debrief or check in with our trained staff.

How to Respond if a Child or Young Person Discloses Abuse or You Think a Child or Young Person is at Risk

Disclosures of abuse from a child or young person are very serious, especially because that child or young person could be unsafe and at risk of immediate harm. On the official Bravehearts website (bravehearts.org.au) you will find information on what to do if a child or young person discloses to you that they are being harmed, or if you suspect a child or young person is being harmed. GO TO: bravehearts.org.au/about-child-sexual-abuse/responding-to-a-disclosure-of-sexual-abuse

Remember, if you ever think a child or young person is in immediate danger, call 000.
